

Spirit Training Camp

Teen Camp has a new name, Spirit Training Camp. The change came as we recognized the direction in which the Lord has been leading. Camp for the past four years has seen the powerful hunger of Teens to do the things Jesus did and said that His followers could and would do. The teens (and their camp counselors) received the Word by faith as Ron Marquardt shared truth from scripture that each of us, as believers, has the same Holy Spirit through whom and by whom Jesus moved and did miracles. Soon, these teen campers went from watching the Holy Spirit move in Ron, to the ones being moved by the Spirit's leading. The next years of camp brought the need to take what God was doing in and through us at camp, to the streets of Rocky Mountains House. What a great testimony to God's love for people when you can share with someone how in prayer that day that God had shown that person to us in a vision or word. To have a chance to share encouragement and hope or a word of knowledge, to pray for the sick and see them healed or lead some to Jesus.

All teens, as time go on, soon are no longer teens. We have had many campers who have attend in the past say they wish they could still come but felt it was just for teens. So the next change we felt to make was to drop the word Teen from the name of camp and add the by line for teens and young adults. We have also gone on-line with registration for camp this year stc.doxa-canada.com We are very excited about how God has led to this next step... He knows where it is going from here and we are on board to follow Him.

Quotables

Beauty isn't worth think-ing about; what's import-ant is your mind. You don't want a fifty-dollar haircut on a fifty-cent head.

Garrison Keillor

As selfishness and complaint pervert the mind, so love with its joy clears and sharpens the vision.

Helen Keller

Don't knock the weather. If it didn't change once in a while, nine out of ten people couldn't start a conversation.

Kin Hubbard

Sometimes I lie awake at night, and I ask, 'Where have I gone wrong?'/ Then a voice says to me, "This is going to take more than one night."

Charles M. Schulz

"Of all tyrannies a tyranny sincerely exercised for the good of its victim may be the most oppressive. It may be better to live under robber barons than under omnipotent moral busybodies. The robber baron's cruelty may sometimes sleep, his cupidity may at some point be satiated, but those who torment us for our own good will torment us without end for they do so with the approval of their own conscience."

C. S. Lewis

By The Way

Richard Edwards

We have just entered that season of the Christian Calendar called Lent. This is a period when many Christians fast - giving up luxuries and practicing self-discipline.

But Henri Nouwen points out that this is really about non-possessiveness. It's about detaching ourselves from our world in a positive way

"To be able to enjoy fully the many good things the world has to offer, we must be detached from them. To be detached does not mean to be indifferent or uninterested. It means to be nonpossessive. Life is a gift to be grateful for and not a property to cling to...It is a life in which we are free to offer praise and thanksgiving."

"Silent" Spring Thing - And your all invited!

By Pastor Shannon

For the past 14 years our Youth have planned, prepared and presented "Spring Thing," an Entertaining Dinner and Silent Auction. It is a fund raising event for Camrose community Church's Bible College/Missions Trip Scholarship fund. This year, 2012, has put us in a different place, a "Silent Spring Thing." Is it because it's a leap year, the end of the ancient Mayan calendar or because we have had such and mild winter when the Farmer's Almanac predicted "Cold"? Perhaps it has to do with the famous "Wiareton Willie" not seeing his shadow or wait, did he? Whatever the reason we just could not get it scheduled to work out this year. SO, we are having a "Silent' Spring Thing"! What does that mean?

We are still fund-raising for our scholarship fund but rather than have the event; we invite you to donate what you might have paid in dinner tickets, server auction or just donations to the fund. Confused? I hope not. We will be having a Silent Auction, for two Sundays—April 15 and April 22, 2012.

If you would like to donate NEW items for the auction get in touch with Pastor Ralph. Items need to be NEW and in his hands no later than April 12th. The Youth are planning for "Spring Thing" to be back as before in 2013! Thank you for your generous support.

Arts and Crafts Show

The annual Arts and Crafts Show, February 3,4, and 5, was a success with eight participants. We had some visitors despite an error in getting advertising out to the public. (Oops!)
