

Mexico Mission Trip

Mexico Team heads out March 30, and returns April 8. Team Members: Merlin & Joanne Rude, Allen & Marlene Brager are already in Mexico at the orphanage doing preparatory work for the build. The remainder of the team, Shannon Payne, Jesse Stenzel, Marrisah Phillis, Harvey Anderson, Cecile L'heureux, Allen Pydde, Eileen Saubak, and Trevor & Rebecca Stenzel leave March 30 and arrive at the build site April 2.

The Family we will be building for is Martin and Maria Avila, and their son, Mauricio (19), and their daughter, Yuridiana (13). All four of them work including Yuridiana who is also attending school in grade 8.

The conditions in which they now live can only be described as very poor with little or no hope of improvement without some assistance. They do not have electricity where they live now.

Doxa Conference 2012 "The Art of Staying in Love"

This year's annual Doxa Conference is creeping up on us very quickly. Mark April 27-29, 2012, on your calendar and then go to the Doxa website to register.

Guest Speakers this year are, Dr. Jim Richards and Bob & Audrey Meisner of the "My New Day" television program, formerly "It's a New Day".

The Meisners wrote, "God chose our marriages to represent who we are with Him to a lost and dying world. This covenant relationship is as close as we can get to heaven on earth!"

Dr. Richards will be holding a special Heart Physics Luncheon on Saturday. Those wishing to attend the Luncheon only will need to be sure to register on-line in advance.

The conference will be held at the Radisson Hotel Edmonton South.

Dr. Jim Richards will also be speaking right here at Camrose Community Church on Sunday evening, April 29.

Spend a while on the Nile

Children's Church will be presenting a Spring Production called "Spend Awhile On the Nile" on April 22, 2012.

Following the performance we will be having the final day of the Spring Thing Silent Auction as well as a Dessert/snack Sale. Food items will be priced from 2 tickets and up. Tickets will be available to purchase at 25¢ each.

All funds raised are for the Bible School/Missions Trip Scholarship.

House of Rain April 20 & 27 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Come one, come all to House of Rain, on Friday evenings.

House of Rain will also now feature live music. Here's a chance to soak in the Presence of God along with other like-minded individuals. Everyone is welcome.

For more updates, info, and comments check out House of Rain on Facebook.

...learn the unforced rhythms of grace.... Keep company with me and you'll learn to live freely and lightly.

Matthew 11: 28-30
(Message)

An amenity I look for at a resort or water park is a 'lazy river.' On a 'lazy river' the stream takes you effortlessly around a pre-scribed course and you just enjoy the ride, the sun and the fun with friends and family. The hardest thing is actually getting into the inner tube and paddling my way to the river.

When I think about the above verse I think about the 'lazy river.' I believe Jesus wants us to hang around with him and to be changed by this encounter. It is an encounter in which we exchange legalism for real life, and endless striving for real rest. It is a place where we don't have to make it happen for when we keep company with Jesus, he invites us to experience a life lived "freely and lightly."

Quotable

"A man can no more diminish God's glory by refusing to worship Him than a lunatic can put out the sun by scribbling the word, 'darkness' on the walls of his cell."

C. S. Lewis

Peddling Parables draws responsive but small crowd

James Popoff's one act play, Peddling Parables drew warm and appreciative applause following last Sunday evening's performance at Camrose Community Church.

Above MoMo and Peppy try to decide how to draw a good crowd for their first attempts at being storytellers. They believe that storytelling might be more lucrative than peddling used goods.

In the middle-right picture, they involved the audience by enlisting the help of Doug Davies, who played the part of a farmer.

In the final photo the two peddlers try to understand the parables they have been repeating to less than enthusiastic crowds.
